Detailed Itinerary

Morning – Rome to Assisi

The day begins with a departure from Rome aboard a comfortable Mercedes-Benz minivan, traveling through the Italian countryside toward the Umbrian hills and the historic town of Assisi (approximately 3 hours drive).

Late Morning – Guided Walking Tour of Assisi

Upon arrival, participants meet a licensed local guide and begin a walking tour through the historic center. The route includes the Basilica of Saint Francis, admired for its frescoes and medieval architecture, as well as the town's characteristic stone lanes and panoramic viewpoints (2 hours).

Early Afternoon – Free Time for Lunch

After the guided visit, free time is available for lunch at a local restaurant or café in Assisi, with the opportunity to enjoy Umbrian specialties and explore the town at leisure (1 hour – lunch not included).

Afternoon – Second Guided Walk and Hidden Corners

Following lunch, participants continue with a second guided walk to explore additional landmarks and lesser-known corners of Assisi, completing a deeper overview of the town's cultural and architectural heritage (1 hour).

Return to Rome

At the conclusion of the visit, participants rejoin the driver for the return journey to Rome (approximately 3 hours drive).
