Detailed Itinerary

Morning – Rome to Sorrento Coast

The experience begins with a departure from Rome, heading south through the Italian countryside toward the Sorrento Coast. The journey offers time to relax and enjoy the changing landscapes before reaching one of southern Italy's most iconic coastal destinations (approximately 3 hours and 15 minutes drive).

Upon arrival, participants meet a licensed local guide and begin a guided walking tour of Sorrento. The visit explores the historic heart of the town, with its narrow streets, artisan shops, historic churches and traditional architecture. Along the way, panoramic viewpoints open over Mount Vesuvius and the sea, offering opportunities for photos and a deeper connection with the town's vibrant atmosphere (approximately 1 hour and 30 minutes).

Late Morning – Transfer to Countryside Agriturismo

After the guided visit, a short transfer leads to a traditional Sorrento agriturismo, set in the countryside among fragrant lemon groves. The peaceful rural setting creates a natural transition from the lively town center to a more intimate and relaxed environment (approximately 15 minutes drive).

Midday – Music Experience and Lunch

At the agriturismo, participants are welcomed with a glass of Prosecco Gran Cuvee by Bocelli 1831 Azienda. The experience continues with a live mini-concert performed by a harpist and a soprano singer. The pop-lyrical repertoire flows from traditional Neapolitan music to well-known songs by Maestro Andrea Bocelli, creating an evocative atmosphere inspired by the sounds and spirit of the Sorrento Coast (approximately 1 hour and 30 minutes).

Following the performance, participants enjoy a traditional four-course lunch, paired with Bocelli wines carefully selected to enhance the flavors of each dish. The meal concludes with a tasting of local limoncello, celebrating Sorrento's citrus heritage.

Afternoon – Return to Rome

After lunch, the journey back to Rome begins. The return drive offers time to relax and reflect on a day shaped by music, coastal scenery and regional flavors (approximately 3 hours drive).
