Detailed Itinerary

Morning – Florence to Volterra

The day begins in Florence, where participants meet their English-speaking driver and depart aboard a comfortable, air-conditioned Mercedes-Benz minivan. The journey toward Volterra unfolds through the scenic Tuscan countryside, with rolling hills and rural landscapes accompanying the drive (Approximately 1 hour and 30 minutes drive).

Late Morning – Bocelli Vineyards and Estate

Following the visit to Volterra, participants reboard the Mercedes-Benz minivan and continue through vineyards and rolling hills toward the Bocelli family estate (Approximately 30 minutes drive).

In Poggioncino, the visit focuses on the Bocelli family vineyards, located adjacent to the Bocelli family farmhouse. Participants learn about the history of the vineyard, grape cultivation, and the family's winemaking philosophy, while enjoying panoramic views of the surrounding Tuscan countryside and admiring the farmhouse from the outside.

Midday – Wine Tasting and Lunch at Officine Bocelli

The experience continues with a short transfer by minivan to the Officine Bocelli Restaurant in Lajatico. Here, participants first visit “La Casa Bocelli”, an intimate museum dedicated to the life and career of Andrea Bocelli. Personal memorabilia, awards, photographs, and curated exhibits offer insight into his artistic journey.

Following the museum visit, participants take part in a wine tasting of Bocelli wines, learning about the family’s winemaking traditions. The tasting is followed by a four-course Tuscan lunch, carefully paired with wines from the family estate (Total duration of vineyard visit, museum, wine tasting and lunch: approximately 3 hours).

Afternoon – Return to Florence

In the afternoon, participants depart Lajatico and begin the return journey to Florence aboard the private minivan. The scenic drive through the Tuscan countryside takes approximately 1 hour and 30 minutes, offering a relaxed and comfortable conclusion to the day.
