Detailed Itinerary

Morning – Livorno Port and Florence

The shore excursion begins at Livorno Port, where participants meet the professional Tour Leader and depart by comfortable, air-conditioned private bus toward Florence, with an introduction to the day provided during the scenic drive through the Tuscan countryside (approximately 1 hour and 30 minutes drive).

Upon arrival, participants join a walking tour of Florence's historic center, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The Tour Leader guides the group through elegant streets and iconic squares, highlighting Piazza del Duomo, the Cathedral of Santa Maria del Fiore, Giotto's Bell Tower, Piazza della Signoria, and Ponte Vecchio, while sharing stories of the artists, architects, and families who shaped the Renaissance city (approximately 2 hours).

Midday – Concert and Lunch

After the visit, the group reaches a local restaurant for an intimate live performance. An exclusive concert features a pianist and a pop-opera singer performing a selection of Italian classics, creating a memorable musical interlude in a refined setting (approximately 1 hour).

Lunch follows with Tuscan specialties and local wines served as part of a fixed-menu experience (approximately 1 hour and 30 minutes).

Afternoon – Free Time and Return

After lunch, participants enjoy free time to explore Florence independently, with the option to browse artisan shops, visit museums at leisure, or relax in a cafe' (approximately 1 hour).

At the end of the visit, participants rejoin the group for the return journey to Livorno Port, arriving in good time to rejoin the ship (approximately 1 hour and 30 minutes drive).
