Detailed Itinerary

Morning – La Spezia Port and Pisa

Participants meet the professional Tour Leader at La Spezia Port before leaving by comfortable, air conditioned bus for Pisa (approximately 1-hour drive).

Upon arrival, a licensed guide leads a walking tour of Piazza dei Miracoli, introducing the Leaning Tower, Cathedral, Baptistery, and Monumental Cemetery (external visits – no tickets entrance). The visit highlights Pisa's architectural heritage and the engineering marvels that made the square world-famous (1-hour guided walking tour).

Midday – Transfer to Lucca and Lunch

After the visit in Pisa, the excursion continues toward Lucca, a refined walled city renowned for its Renaissance character (approximately 30 minute drive).

Lunch is served at a traditional Tuscan trattoria, featuring a fixed three-course menu prepared with fresh local ingredients and regional specialties (approximately 2 hours).

Afternoon – Lucca Historic Center

Following lunch, a licensed guide leads a walking tour of Lucca's historic center. The route includes Via Fillungo, Piazza dell'Anfiteatro, the Cathedral of San Martino, and a series of streets and squares that reflect the city's medieval and Renaissance heritage (1.5-hour guided walking tour).

After the guided visit, participants enjoy free time to explore Lucca independently, walk along the city walls, browse local shops, or relax in one of the city's caf  s (approximately 1 hour free time).

Return to La Spezia Port

At the conclusion of the visit, participants rejoin the private bus for the return journey to La Spezia Port, arriving comfortably and in good time to rejoin the ship (approximately 1-hour drive).
