Day One - Arrival in Lido di Camaiore and Welcome Dinner

Participants arrive independently in Lido di Camaiore, where they check in at the hotel and have time to settle in, relax, and enjoy the hotel facilities before meeting the rest of the group. In the evening, participants meet their fellow travelers and enjoy a welcome dinner at the hotel restaurant, marking the beginning of their Tuscan journey.

Day Two - Lucca and Bocelli Music and Wine Experience

After breakfast, the group departs for Lucca, one of Tuscany's most charming historic cities. Participants enjoy a private guided walking tour through the historic center, followed by free time for lunch. Lunch is not included.

In the afternoon, the group travels to the Bocelli family vineyards for a special experience combining wine and music. Participants visit the vineyard and enjoy an aperitif featuring Bocelli Prosecco, accompanied by a live music experience.

The evening continues with a wine tasting at Officine Bocelli, followed by dinner at Ristorante Officine Bocelli. After dinner, the group returns to the hotel.

Day Three - Pietrasanta, Alpemare & Andrea Bocelli Concert

The day begins with a guided visit to Pietrasanta, where participants discover the town's artistic atmosphere and historic center. The group then continues to Forte dei Marmi for lunch at the exclusive Alpemare Beach Club. After lunch, participants return to the hotel and have some time at leisure before preparing for the highlight of the journey. In the late afternoon, the group departs for Lajatico, Andrea Bocelli's Tuscan hometown. A pre-concert dinner is served at a restaurant near the Teatro del Silenzio. The evening culminates with the Andrea Bocelli concert at the Teatro del Silenzio, with Poltronissima tickets included. After the performance, the group returns to the hotel in Lido di Camaiore.

Day Four - Tuscan Seaside & Portovenere

After the concert evening, participants enjoy a relaxing morning by the sea, with beach facilities included and time to experience the Tuscan coast at their own pace.

Lunch is at leisure and is not included.

In the afternoon, the group departs for Portovenere, where participants enjoy a guided visit through the village, discovering its narrow streets, colorful waterfront, and characteristic coastal atmosphere.

The day concludes with dinner in Portovenere, followed by the return transfer to the hotel.

Day Five - Florence Full Day with Private Guide

After breakfast, the group departs for Florence, the heart of the Renaissance.

Upon arrival, participants enjoy a private guided tour introducing them to some of the city's most famous landmarks, history, and artistic heritage.

After the guided visit, the group enjoys lunch at a restaurant in the city center, followed by free time to explore Florence independently. Participants can wander through its historic streets and squares before returning to Lido di Camaiore in the late afternoon.

The evening is at leisure, with dinner not included.

Day Six - Departure

After breakfast, participants check out from the hotel and depart independently, bringing their Tuscan journey to an end after days dedicated to art, wine, seaside landscapes, and the unforgettable Andrea Bocelli concert at the Teatro del Silenzio.
